

Pulp Chain of Custody

We are committed to implement and maintain the chain of custody requirements in accordance with the applicable standards for responsible forestry certification.

Shane Steeves

Vice President, Product and Procurement

June 2026

Management Commitment to Social, Health and Safety in Pulp Chain of Custody

- working conditions do not endanger safety or health
- forced labour is not used
- workers, who are under the minimum legal age, the age of 15, or the compulsory school attendance age, which ever is higher, are not used
- workers are not prevented from associating freely, choosing their representatives, and bargaining collectively with their employer
- workers are not denied equal employment opportunities and treatment

Shane Steeves
Vice President, Product and Procurement
June 2026

Management Commitment to Responsible Forestry Values in Pulp Chain of Custody

We commit that we shall not be directly or indirectly involved in the following activities:

- Illegal logging or the trade in illegal wood or forest products;
- Violation of traditional and human rights in forestry operations;
- Destruction of high conservation values in forestry operations;
- Significant conversion of forests to plantations or non-forest use;
- Introduction of genetically modified organisms in forestry operations; and
- Violation of any of the International Labour Organization (ILO) Conventions, as defined in the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, 1998.

Shane Steeves

Vice President, Product and Procurement

June 2026

